DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-3, 5-9, and 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Babcock #6,238,144. Babcock discloses a stabilized earth structure comprising panels 30; main reinforcements 22 disconnected from the panel; and secondary elements 47 connected to the panels. Furthermore, it appears that the secondary element may extend shorter than the main reinforcements 22.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 4 and 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Babcock in view of Brown et al #4,824,293. Babcock discloses the claimed invention except for the secondary elements cast into the panel. Brown et al teaches that it is known to cast a flexible synthetic reinforcing member 12 into a panel 11 as set forth at column 2, lines 45-58. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to cast a flexible synthetic reinforcing member into a panel, as taught by Brown et al in order to facilitate stabilization of a retaining wall structure.

Conclusion

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
